Notice of Statutory Rights

Under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, I have the following rights in additions to rights under GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018:

1. I have the right to withhold my consent for a medical report to be sent to Legal & General, although if I withhold this consent then Legal & General will be unable to accept my application.
2. If I give my consent to the report, I have the right to see the report before it is sent to Legal & General. I will have 21 days to contact the doctor to arrange to see the report and the doctor must obtain my further consent before the report is sent on to Legal & General. If I do not arrange to see the report within 21 days, it will be sent to Legal & General. I have the right to see the report at any time within six months of it being sent to Legal & General.
3. I have the right to request amendments to be made to the report. If the doctor refuses to make these amendments, I have the right to request that the doctor attaches a statement containing my views to the report.
4. The doctor does not have to let me see any part of a report that he/she considers would be likely to cause serious harm to my physical or mental health or to that of others, or would indicate the doctor's intentions towards me. The doctor also does not have to let me see any part of a report which may disclose the identity of another person who has supplied information about me, unless that person has consented or is a health professional caring for me. If the doctor does not let me see any part of a report, he/she must notify me of that fact.
