Overview of your policy

- Your policy will pay a monthly benefit after a waiting period, if you become ill or injured and can't work while the policy is active.
- Depending on how your policy is set up, you could receive a benefit for up to 2 years, until you return to work, the end of the policy, your retirement, or if you suffer an earlier death.

Access to Wellbeing Support

Free access to Wellbeing Support gives you and your family access to emotional and practical support from RedArc Assured Ltd. It's there to help you with a wide range of things, including:

- Recovering from illness or injury, including return to work coaching, lifestyle advice and organising additional services
- Autoimmune condition support
- Mental health support, including access for you, your partner and any children living at home

Access to Rehabilitation Support Services

Included in your policy at no extra cost, Rehabilitation Support Services gives you early access to triage and assessment to discuss the best treatment options for your illness or injury.

Your policy is there to:

- Maintain an income while you can't work
- Keep on top of your ability to pay bills on a monthly basis
