Experience

I'm an experienced financial services professional, having worked primarily as a financial adviser since graduating in 1997.

I really enjoy getting to know my customers and producing their retirement plans, with a keen eye for detail.

Interests

Originally from the West Midlands, I live with my wife in Edinburgh. I love the cultural side of the city, along with walking in the Highlands, real ale and playing golf.

I'm a Villa Park season ticket holder, and happiest exploring new places on holiday, especially when combined with watching test cricket in sunnier climes.
